

An unusual offer—the one that's made by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Unusual, but made in good faith. It's a reward of $500 for an incurable case of Catarrh. If you have one, the money's for you. But you can't know whether you have one, till you've tried Dr. Sage's Remedy. What's incredible by any other means, yields to that. By its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties, it cures the worst cases, no matter of how long standing. That's the reason the money can be offered. There's a risk about it, to be sure. But it's so small that the proprietors are willing to take it. The symptoms of catarrh are, headache, obstruction of nose, discharges falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody, putrid and offensive; eyes weak, ringing in ears, deafness; offensive breath; smell and taste impaired, and general debility. Only a few of these symptoms likely to be present at a once.

HUNGARIAN LABORERS

Brought to Canton to Work on the Street Railway Line.

The following is from the Pittsburgh Press and it would seem as if Canton and Massillon laborers should be given a preference over the Hungarians. A carload of Hungarians went out the Ft. Wayne road on the western express this morning. There were 26 in the party. They were in charge of Sperber Carbons, a Hungarian contractor, and are going to Canton, O., to assist in the construction of a street railway. Speaking of Hungarian labor, Carbons said: "As a class, the Hungarians are getting better pay now for street and steam railway construction than they did two or three years ago. My men are offered $1.50 a day for the work at Canton, and we consider that a very fair price. For a while we had difficulty to get $1.25. Hungarian labor is in greater demand now, as many of our countrymen have returned to Hungary, while the greater portion of those that remain are working in mines in various parts of the country. These men are all friends of mine and have been working on street railway construction about this city."

ALLIANCE AFFAIRS.

ALLIANCE, May 11. Charles Helfrich, a brakeman on the P. & W. & C. R. who had his leg badly crushed at Columbus about two weeks ago, on account of which accident he was discharged from the P. & W. & C. R., died at the Hotel Central in this city last night from the effects of the accident. He was 22 years of age and lived at Crestline. The remains were taken there on the noon train today.

When the Chicago Limited stopped at the station last night Station Officer Kale noticed two small boys on the front end of the combination car fast asleep. He aroused them and looked them up in the city jail for the night. This morning they told the mayor their names were Samuel Young and John Welsh of Allegheny, Pa., and that they were ten years of age. The boys had got on the limited at Pittsburgh intending to ride over to their homes in western Allegheny, but the train was going so fast they were afraid to get off. The mayor has telegraphed their parents and will likely return them to their homes today.

UTILIZING THE LADIES.

Young Men Banquet at the Girls Exchange. The auditorium in the Y. M. C. A. building was the scene of a happy banquet last evening. The participants were those members of the association who have been active in the matter of soliciting new members to the organization. There were twenty-eight of them and the event was an unusually pleasant one for all. The ladies of Trinity Reformed church furnished the feast, which was a splendid one and the table and room were decorated with flowers and tropical plants until the sight was of extraordinary beauty. After the banquet had done justice to the eatables a short time was spent in conferring together and devising plans to extend the membership of the association.

SUDDENLY TAKEN ILL.

Lewis Rosenbriek lying seriously ill at his home.

Lewis Rosenbriek a painter employed at the Safe works is lying very seriously ill at his home in Liberty street. On Monday night he was walking along the street with his wife he was suddenly taken sick with heart disease and congestion of the brain and sank to the pavement fainting. He was taken to his home and Dr. Biechle called. Everything possible was done for him but he remained in an unconscious condition until this morning when he spoke a few words. He is still very low, however, and it is not known whether he can recover or not.

Dentists in Session.

The Dental Association of Northern Ohio is in session at Cleveland. The Plain Dealer says: At the afternoon session thirty-five members were present. Dr. Grant Mitchell of Canton read a paper on "Crown and Bridge Work." Discussion was opened by Dr. J. E. Robinson of Cleveland and Dr. J. P. Dougherty of Canton, and was participated in by others. At the conclusion of this discussion the members adjourned to the office of Dr. Barnes to witness an interesting clinic. The session today will begin at 9 o'clock.

Hurt His Foot.

Ed. Strasser of the Globe Clothing House went down to the Saw works Monday, and while there accidentally ran his foot against a sharp saw that was lying on the floor. The teeth penetrated his shoe and cut an ugly gash in the foot. Dr. March fixed him up and the injury will not prove serious.

CHRISTIAN ALLIANCE.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SESSIONS IN THE ASSEMBLY ROOM.

A Vigorous Warfare Being Carried on Against Worldliness—Many Speakers Participate—Miraculous Restoration to Health Reported.

The Ohio Christian Alliance is still doing battle against the "old scratch," in the assembly room in the city hall. The number in attendance at the conference is not very large but it is a very earnest and apparently consecrated assembly. Tuesday afternoon Rev. Tubbs of Toledo, who is on his way to the mission fields of India was present and spoke upon "The Diversions of the World from Christianity." Rev. H. B. Hensley, vice president of the Ohio Alliance delivered a ringing address on the theme, "Being Filled with the Spirit." He spoke of the joy and peace and rest of soul, experienced in living a spiritual life and said that the pleasures the world could give were as naught compared to them.

Mrs. Thomas of Fairport, Ohio, Cleveland, spoke upon her experiences and told some marvelous things in the line of cures effected in the body by subjecting it to the influence of the spirit. She said that she herself had been rescued as she stood hovering on the brink of eternity. For eighteen years she had been a confirmed invalid, suffering from a cancer. The doctors did all they could but she grew worse and worse, and finally she gave up all hope and said she could live but a short time at most. She said she then turned to the Supreme Ruler, and in answer to her prayers she was quickly and miraculously restored to perfect health. She recited other cases of a similar character.

In the evening the exercises consisted of a vocal concert by the Romanists, who have been in the training school at Cleveland.

MRS. ADA F. CLARK OF CANTON SUSPENDED.

She Makes Violent Speech on the Floor of the Convention in Her Own Behalf—President McKinley Denounces Mrs. Clark's Use of Charity Money For Her Own Benefit—J. J. Clark Makes an Effort That Fails to Materialize.

(From News-Democrat Special Reporter.)

PIQUA, O., May 11.—(Special.)—Yesterday evening's session of the W. R. C. was full of intense excitement and dramatic incidents. The case of Ada F. Clark of Canton, was the absorbing theme. Owing to the wide circulation of the NEWS-DEMOCRAT, now conceded to be leading authority on Woman's Relief Corps news, the subject was well understood by a majority of the delegates present. Mrs. Ada F. Clark, Mrs. Alice Rex, Mrs. Belle Tenney and Mrs. Emma F. Koons all of Canton, were present. Mrs. Clark made an effort to exclude Mrs. Tenney, Past President of Canton Corps, on the ground that she had been given her transfer card, Mrs. Tenney claimed that she was still a member, and she was admitted after a lively debate.

The Woman's Relief Corps Convention was visited by Commander in Chief Warner, Chaplain Collier and other leading Grand Army comrades. Convention was large and harmonious. The President's address commended the work for the Soldier's Home and Soldiers Orphan's Home.

The clause in the Department President's address that all revenues arising from the printing of advertisements in the Journal of Proceedings belongs to the Woman's Relief Corps was adopted by a unanimous vote, all women rising to their feet. This was a tremendous knock out for Mrs. Clark. Then Mrs. Clark was formally suspended as Department Counselor, she having collected and withheld monies due the Department.

When the President's address was under discussion, Mrs. Clark indulged in a lengthy tirade and was repeatedly called to order by Convention. The only defender she had was Alice M. Rex, of Canton Corps. The Ohio women seem to have reached a pretty clear understanding of the case.

NOT IN IT AT THE CAMP FIRE.

The Grand Army Reception committee were importuned, through J. J. Clark, to put Ada F. Clark on the camp fire programme but they declined. It will be a grand affair to be held this (Wednesday) night at the rink. There are many distinguished speakers on the programme.

FINE BODY OF WOMEN.

The convention is a fine body of women, firm but even poised. Mrs. Clark is the only one who takes the war path, which has excited a great deal of unfavorable comment.

Hamilton, Canton and Chillicothe are asking for the next State encampment, Col. L. E. Mack of Sandusky looks like the winner for next Department Convention, and Mrs. La Rue of Dayton, is the most mentioned candidate for President of the Woman's Relief Corps.

BRILLIANT WEDDING.

MARRIAGE OF MR. N. P. WHELAN AND MISS ANNA C. BIECHELE.

Celebrated Wednesday Morning in this City at St. Peter's Catholic Church.

Mr. Nicholas P. Whelan of Cleveland and Miss Anna C. Biechle of Canton were married at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The wedding was one of the most happy and charming ones that has been consummated in this city for many a day. The groom is a talented and popular young gentleman of Cleveland and the bride, the accomplished daughter of Mr. Joseph Biechle of this city.

The ceremony binding the couple together for life took place in St. Peter's Catholic church in the presence of an unusually large number of friends.

The church was beautifully decorated, the altar being equipped in its finest paraphernalia, and additional beauty added by a profusion of flowers.

At just 10:30 the bridal party arrived at the church. A carpet had been stretched across the sidewalk from the church to the curb and the bride was the first to enter. He proceeded at once to the apartment of the priest. Following him came the balance of the party who were led down the central aisle by the ushers. Miss Dolly Biechle, the bridesmaid dressed in an elegant yellow satin with ostrich plumes around the throat and neck and carrying a superb bouquet of yellow roses accompanied the groomsmen, Mr. J. J. Wagner, of Cleveland.

The bride, leaning upon the arm of her father, followed. She was costumed in an expensive and beautiful white bengaline silk, trimmed in deep lace and with a long flowing train. Her bridal veil was exquisite and reached to the end of the train. She carried a large bunch of white roses and made a picture of perfect loveliness. Many were the compliments pressed upon her by the friends present. Miss Ida Biechle, as maid of honor, completed the number of the bridal party. She wore a handsome steel drab silk, trimmed in pink, and carried pink roses.

The ceremony was unusually beautiful. Rev. Father Lamb, of Cleveland, acted as master of ceremony; Rev. Father O'Connell, of Cleveland, presided as deacon. Rev. Father Farrell, of Ravenna, acted as sub-deacon and the words that bound the pair together were said by Rev. Father Arnold.

The music for the occasion was delightful. Miss Anna Biechle sang a charming solo, "O Salutaris" by Odoardo Barri and Miss Lang also sang an elegant selection. The organist who presided at the instrument and rendered the wedding march, was Mr. Gust Land.

Dr. R. A. Biechle, Dr. T. M. Johnson, Mr. Frank Alexander and Mr. Justin Seelies were ushers for the occasion and each wore a boutonniere of a white bow with the letters W. B. upon it. After the services the newly wedded pair repaired to the home of the bride's parents at No. 110 South Market street where a reception will be given this evening. Both of the contracting parties have a large circle of friends who unite in wishing them the utmost joy in their married life.

Mrs. Nancy Wilson who has been living with her son Rev. N. J. Wilson of this city, the past winter, returned to her home at Warren, N. J. Wilson is eighty-one years of age and is the mother of five children.

PRESS OPINIONS.

WHAT THE PAPERS OF THE COUNTRY THINK OF MORGAN.

The Foe of Organized Labor and a Rank Prohibitionist—Clippings From Many Papers.

The papers of the country do not seem to take kindly to the nomination of Mr. Morgan, and all seem to speak of him in one strain. Here are a few opinions:

STEVENSVILLE GAZETTE.

The Republicans in the McKinley district have nominated Thomas R. Morgan of Alliance, to fill the place of the great man who is now trying to fill Governor Campbell's shoes. It is said of Morgan that he is a very rich man in money and that he owns a brass band, two things that are factors in Republican success. Without brass bands to catch the impulsive and money with which to corrupt those who have no well grounded political principles the Republican party could carry but few northern States. Mr. Morgan will engage in a spectacular campaign, with tin plate for background of the scenery. But can he be successful with John G. Warwick, of Massillon, as his opponent, the man who defeated McKinley himself, a man who has the solid elements of composition that are needed in Congress?

PITTSBURGH POST.

Thomas R. Morgan, the Alliance, O., Manufacturer who was nominated for Congress by the Republican party in the McKinley district, is the man above all others whom the Democrats desired the opposition to set up. He is rich and ripe and owns a brass band. His canvass will, therefore, be spectacular and he will pester out in a blaze of red fire. He has the reputation of being able to talk more and say less than any man in the state of Ohio. He is a high priced beneficiary of the probability Congressman John G. Warwick of Massillon will be nominated by the Democrats in this district, and notwithstanding the Republican sympathy he will be re-elected. By all odds Morgan is the Democratic first choice for Republican candidate.

MASSILLONIAN.

The involved point of the convention is that the McKinley political Judge King as a prevaricator and promptly retaliated for his defeat of the sad and sophomoric McKinley for temporary chairman of the recent Cleveland convention. It is doubtful whether Judge King has enough belief in his veracity to resent this humiliation visited upon him by the McKinley feudal lord at Salem. He must pass under the yoke and permit Mr. Morgan's candidacy to mean his own self debasement among high minded men in politics. His situation is pitiable. The chairman of the Republican state committee branded as a liar by a convention of his party colleagues.

Mr. Morgan's nomination has particularly incensed the Junior Order or American Mechanics who oppose the foreign-born citizens of this nation, and also the anti-prohibitionists. His career of bossdom in Alliance is quite familiar and his rank advocacy of the absurd theory of prohibition has been in consonance with the overweening vanity often exhibited, by an employer of his caliber. It is said to be the only real second to Demosthenes since Cicero died, and to have been the master in eloquence to whom Wm. McKinley owes much of his somber and stuffed style of declamation.

As a candidate Mr. Morgan of Morgantown is a decided failure.

EAST LIVERPOOL CRISIS.

Thomas R. Morgan is a man of great wealth in the line of politics, but he has used on and exercised the other in a manner not calculated to win him either the respect or the support of the masses of the people. He belongs to that class of men, unfortunately very numerous, who look upon the possession of wealth as conferring powers dictatorial in their nature, and are little disposed to view with tolerance the claims to consideration of others less fortunate. His position is pitiable. The chairman of the Republican state committee branded as a liar by a convention of his party colleagues.

The charge of boodles is made against Morgan by the chairman of the Republican county committee.

The Amalgamated Association will fix Morgan's case.

Waybrecht of Alliance should take a hand in the Congressional campaign. He will be remembered that he was unelected after being fairly elected to the legislature. There may be some gratification for him before the fight is ended.

Our local contemporary is in a very bad predicament. The devil is on one side and the deep sea on the other. What will it do? Support a "black sheep" man?

"A Lie Natted."

To the Editor of the Telegram.

Is it true that at Salem the "Shark" county delegation attempted to steal the coats and hats belonging to the Mahoning delegation? The devil is on one side and the deep sea on the other. What will it do? Support a "black sheep" man?

No. Constant Reader, the Mahoning delegation left the hall first, and they didn't have a chance.—Youngstown Telegram.

Union Medical Society.

The Union Medical Society of Northwestern Ohio concluded their exercises in Canton yesterday afternoon. After the News-DEMOCRAT had gone to press, Dr. Conn of Akron read a paper on "The Functions of the Liver," and some minor matters of business were attended to. The next meeting of the society will be held at Akron in three months.

Probate Court.

Louis J. Boll has been appointed executor of Frederick Boll of Perry township. Jackson Pontius has been appointed guardian of Tony Delap. The young man will be brought here from Columbus.

Mr. Ann Kermer has been appointed guardian of the minor heirs of Henry Kerchner, deceased.

A Small Fire.

The fire department was called out at 2:45 o'clock this afternoon by a small blaze in a little shed adjoining the stable on a lot on No. 2 Hane street. The occupant of the house on the lot is M. Conn, a peddler. The damage amounts to little.
